The software allows you to create as many notes as you wish and display them on the screen or hide them, so they do not distract you. You may easily copy, cut or paste text inside the notes. Quick desktop reminder With a smooth looking interface and easily operated functions, Desktop Notes Cracked Accounts is a suitable solution for moments when you need to create desktop reminders. Whether you wish to remind yourself of something important or leave a message for the next user who opens your computer, the sticky notes can be set to always stay on top of other windows. You may create as many reminders as you wish, by simply clicking the “plus” symbol and adding a new note. Each small window features a different color, so you can tell them apart and features customizable transparency. Each note supports a large piece of text, since you can easily scroll up/down and read the message. Moreover, each Web address is automatically converted to a URL. Customize reminders and keep them on your desktop Each note you create supports individual settings regarding its layout. You can easily modify the color or the top bar, background and text, change the font style or size, even adjust the level of transparency. Since the note can remain on top of other windows, you can choose to make it see-through or opaque. View notes and remember important events The software can start with Windows and run in the background, so you can be sure that while your computer is running the notes stay on your desktop. When several notes are hidden, you may easily change their status from the Note Manager, a function that lists all the notes you created. With the Manager, you may view the titles of each note, as well as add or remove reminders. You may choose to have your notes synchronized automatically or manually. To ensure that your notes stay up-to-date, Notes For Mac is designed to automatically synchronize your notes as you edit them. You may also manually synchronize your notes from any of your PCs. Finally, you may also edit your notes directly on your PC and have them synchronized on your Mac. The synchronization process takes place in the background, while you are working on your notes. Therefore, you do not need to worry about keeping your notes synchronized. Synchronization on the go If you need to work on your notes, while traveling, for example, you can manually synchronize your notes directly from your Mac to your PC. The process is completely transparent and does not require any setup and your notes are synchronized on the same page. Notes manager When you want to synchronize your notes, there is also a Notes Manager. You may add your notes from the Mac to the Notes Manager and even synchronize them between your PCs. Each of the PCs that you will be using for synchronization must be running Notes For Mac. Automatically synchronized notes For those of you that prefer to have your notes synchronized automatically, you may be interested in the note type called Automatically Synchronized. If you add notes of this type, the Notes For Mac will automatically synchronize them as you work on them. Manually synchronized notes For those of you that want your notes to be automatically synchronized, but want to synchronize them manually, there are two options. The first option is to create a note on one of your PCs and manually synchronize the note to the Mac. The second option is to create a note on the Mac, while it is running, and synchronize the note to any of your PCs. Synchronization between PC and Mac Once you have created a note on either your Mac or a PC, the Notes For Mac will automatically synchronize the note from the other machine.
