REUTERS/Ed Jhang SEOUL (Reuters) - South Korea on Sunday reported no new coronavirus infections, and no new deaths, for the first time in two days, after a weekend spike in cases stoked fears the outbreak could worsen and exact economic toll. The absence of new cases came as markets worldwide remained closed or were due to close on Monday, including in South Korea, in response to the epidemic. The country has so far reported 160 cases, which are only a fraction of the more than 5,000 cases in mainland China, the epicenter of the coronavirus outbreak, according to the World Health Organization.Jock Kinneir John Kinneir (1 October 1894 – 9 October 1965) was a Scottish footballer, best remembered for his appearance for Walsall Town Swifts in the Birmingham & District League in 1913–14. He also played for Cumnock Juniors and served with the Cameron Highlanders during World War I. Career Born in Cupar, Kinneir began his career with local side Cupar Albion. In 1909, he signed for Cumnock Juniors, scoring nine goals in 14 matches during his first season. In 1911, he joined Football League side Burnley, scoring once in 15 matches. He returned to Cupar, before joining East Stirlingshire in August 1912. He continued to play for East Stirlingshire, before in 1913, Kinneir signed for Walsall Town Swifts. However, he made just one appearance for Walsall Town Swifts in the Birmingham & District League. Kinneir remained in the midlands, signing for Brierley Hill Alliance in the Cheshire County League, but returned 5b5f913d15
