1. Create shipping labels containing the company's name, address, city and zip code. 2. Fill in customer and sender's address details. 3. Preview the labels. 4. Save labels to Microsoft Word format. A: The shipping label created by Microsoft Office Word cannot be printed, only saved to a text file. Word automatically creates a text file to save the label. If you need to have a label that you can print yourself, you can either create the label manually in a program such as Wordpad or LibreOffice Writer, or purchase the shipping labels from a third-party website such as Uprinting or Shipwire. Mabotien Mabotien is a small town in the western region of the Mwanza Region, Tanzania. It is located in the Tabora Region, approximately 20 kilometers from the Tanzania-Uganda border. The town is the capital of the Bugoye District, with a population of approximately 28,800. The town is served by the Mabotien Airport, and is also the site of the small Bugoye Airport. The Bugoye Airport was declared a government airfield in December 1998. The name Bugoye is a Kiswahili word, meaning "mango tree", According to the 2012 Tanzania National Census, the town had a population of 21,467. History Mabotien was declared the capital of Bugoye district in 1998. Bugoye was originally a part of the Lake Victoria Region, until it was removed and merged with Mwanza Region in 2002. Transport Mabotien is served by the Mabotien Airport, which is also a government facility. The Bugoye Airport was declared a government airfield in December 1998, and is privately operated. It was named after Bishop Denis Bugoye, who was born in Mabotien on 9 May 1891. The Mwanza-Njombe Road, a paved road, runs through the town. The national rail line runs through Mabotien.
